

St. Barnabas' Episcopal Church

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST | OCTOBER 15, 2023

8:00 am & 10:00 am

The Great Banquet – Artist Unknown

God's discerning, inclusive, Christ-centered church, engaged in outreach ministry, growing discipleship, and life changing worship.

Welcome to Indoor Worship at St. Barnabas'!

Welcome to our in-person indoor worship service. In order to worship safely we will:

- Have doors and windows open to provide fresh airflow,
- Be limited to those who have no COVID-19 symptoms and have not recently tested positive for COVID-19.
- Recommend that a mask be worn at all times, however, masks are optional for those who have been vaccinated and are healthy,
- Prohibit touching, hugging, and handshakes,
- Please note that we do not require COVID vaccination to attend worship at St. Barnabas.

Distribution of bread and wine:

- Starting from the back of the room, Ushers will invite you forward to receive the bread and wine.
- After receiving the bread, you may slip it under your mask to consume it.
- Then you may take a small bowl of wine from the tray and consume the wine before returning to your seat. Empty bowls may be placed in the baskets along the side of the room.
- If you prefer you may also drink wine from the common chalice.
- If you are unable to come forward, let the ushers know so the bread can be brought to you.

Four courtyard and two narthex bathrooms are available for your use. Please use the disinfecting spray that is in the bathroom. If you have any questions or concerns, the Ushers are available to assist you.

Welcome to Online St. Barnabas!

Welcome to those joining our virtual worship with Facebook Live. We are glad to have you with us in this new way. You may access our livestream starting at 9:45 am at facebook.com/StBarnabasAG/

A recording of the live-stream will be posted on the St. Barnabas YouTube Channel (bit.ly/StBYouTube) the afternoon following the service.

Bidding (intercessory prayer) Book – If you would like to add a prayer to be read during the church service, you may add it to the “Bidding Book” located at the back of the church to the left of the doors. If you cannot join us in person and would like to add a prayer to be read during the church service you can email the name of the person to our parish office at saintbarnabas.ag@gmail.com (before Wednesday morning), or add it to the comments section on Facebook Live during the livestream.

Greens and Candle Dedications – Candles are lighted by David and Pam Pano in memory of Pam’s father, Danny Dominador.

The flowers have been placed on the altar by Gail Applegate in memory of her son Vince; by Jeff Diehl and Rob Keim in celebration of the life of Rob’s father, Robert Mahlon Keim.

Rejoice in the Lord Always sung by The Choral Scholars

Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say, rejoice!
Rejoice! Rejoice! And again I say rejoice!

WORDS & MUSIC: EVELYN TANNER

Each year we observe a cycle of seasons. The year starts with Advent which leads into seasons of Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Easter, and Pentecost. We are currently in the long season after Pentecost called "ordinary time." The color for this season is green.

This year we have layered in a special season about Creation and our need to care for Creation. Note the various prayers and sayings that focus on Creation.

THE WORD OF GOD

Stand as you are able.

ENTRANCE HYMN

The people standing, the Celebrant says

Celebrant Blessed be the One who creates all things.
People The Holy One's love is new every morning.
Celebrant This is the day the Creator has made.
People Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

This Profession of Creation is provided by the Anglican Communion's "Seasons of Creation" steering committee, and we will use it during our own Season of Creation which we are observing until All Saints Sunday in November.

PROFESSION OF CREATION

The Celebrant and People say together

We believe in God, who creates all things, who embraces all things, who celebrates all things,
who is present in every part of the fabric of creation.
We believe in God as the source of all life,
who baptizes this planet with living water.
We believe in Jesus Christ, the suffering one, the poor one,
the malnourished one, the climate refugee,
who loves and cares for this world
and who suffers with it.
And we believe in Jesus Christ, the seed of life,
who came to reconcile and renew this world
and everything in it.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the breath of God,
who moves with God
and who moves among and with us today.
We believe in everlasting life in God.
And we believe in the hope that one day
God will put an end to death and all destructive forces.

In this season our Song of Praise is the Venite which is Latin for "come." The Venite is composed from Psalms 95 and 96 which are traditionally attributed to King David as the author.

The first two verses are a call to praise God with psalms. The next verses give the reason. God is our sovereign, our provider, our Creator.

SONG OF PRAISE

Venite

1. Come, let us sing to the Lord; let us shout for joy to the Rock of our sal - va - tion. 2. Let us come be - fore his pres - ence with thanks - giv - ing - and raise a loud shout to him with psalms. 3. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King a - bove all gods. 4. In his hand are the caverns of the earth, and the heights of the hills are his also. 5. The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands have mold - ed the dry land. 6. Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, and kneel before the Lord our Ma - ker. 7. For he is our God, and we are the peo - ple of his pas - ture and the sheep of his hand.

 Oh, that to - day you would heark-en to his voice!

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect of the Day is a prayer that "collects" and organizes our thoughts. Like a sonnet or haiku, it follows a traditional structure – a preamble (address, invocation), a petition, and a conclusion (meditation). There is often an allusion to the Gospel reading. There is a Collect of the Day for each week of the year as well as special feast days.

THE LESSONS

The people sit.

FIRST READING: Exodus 32:1-14

A Reading from book of Exodus.

When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, “Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.” Aaron said to them, “Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.” So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from them, formed it in a mold, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!” When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, “Tomorrow shall be a festival to the Lord.” They rose early the next day, and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel.

The Lord said to Moses, “Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!’” The Lord said to Moses, “I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.”

But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, “O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, ‘It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth?’ Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’” And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

People Thanks be to God.

Each Sunday, our worship includes a reading from
(a) the Old Testament,
(b) the Psalms,
(c) the New Testament,
and (d) the Gospels.

Our readings are on a pre-set three-year cycle called “The Revised Common Lectionary” or RCL. We are currently in Year A of that three-year cycle.

Psalm: 106:1-6, 19-23

Remain seated.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, and his mercy en-dures for ev - er.

¹ Hallelujah!

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, *
for his mercy endures for ever.

² Who can declare the mighty acts of the Lord * or show forth all his praise?

³ Happy are those who act with justice * and always do what is right! Refrain

⁴ Remember me, O Lord, with the favor you have for your people, *
and visit me with your saving help;

⁵ That I may see the prosperity of your elect and be glad with the gladness of your people, * that I may glory with your inheritance. Refrain

⁶ We have sinned as our forebears did; *
we have done wrong and dealt wickedly.

¹⁹ Israel made a bull-calf at Horeb *
and worshiped a molten image; Refrain

²⁰ And so they exchanged their Glory *
for the image of an ox that feeds on grass.

²¹ They forgot God their Savior, *
who had done great things in Egypt,

²² Wonderful deeds in the land of Ham, *
and fearful things at the Red Sea.

²³ So he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, *
to turn away his wrath from consuming them. Refrain

10am: Cantor sings Refrain.

All repeat.

Choral Scholars sing verses.

All sing Refrain.

Again, this week, today's psalm teaches about God's saving actions during the Exodus from Egypt. Notice how this psalm repeats the themes found in today's Old Testament readings from the Book of Exodus.

SECOND READING: Philippians 4:1-9

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Philippians.

My brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Matthew 22:1-16

All stand.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once more Jesus spoke to the people in parables, saying: “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.’ But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, ‘The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.’ Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

“But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?’ And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ For many are called, but few are chosen.”

SEQUENCE HYMN

Holy Ghost, dispel our sadness

Verse 2
Prior Page

THE SERMON

Followed by a moment of silent mediation.

Julie Shires

Our New Testament contains four Gospels or accounts of “good news” about Jesus and his teachings. Though Jesus and his disciples would have spoken Aramaic, these Gospels were originally written in Greek. Scholars have determined that the Gospels were written forty to sixty years after the death and resurrection of Jesus. Thus, there do not present an eyewitness or contemporary account of Jesus’ life and teachings.

The Episcopal Church does not have a separate statement of faith or list of things we believe. Instead we hold the ancient Creeds, such as the Apostles' and Nicene, to be our statements of faith. They contain the core of our belief as Christians, but do not limit our faith.

THE NICENE CREED

All stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLES

All remain standing.

God of all Creation,
You are present in the whole universe—even in the smallest of your creatures.
You embrace all that exists with tenderness and love.
Pour out upon us the power of your love,
That we are so moved to embrace the world you give us with tenderness.
God of all creation,
Guide us in your love and grace.

In this season our Prayers of the Peoples have a special emphasis on God as Creator as well as our love and stewardship of Creation.

CONTINUES ➤

Lord, our teacher,
Teach us to discover the worth of your creation both great and small,
To be filled with awe, wonder, and contemplation,
And to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature.
Help the leaders of your Church to be examples of that oneness
In their lives and ministry.
God of all Creation, Guide us in your love and grace.

Lord of all wisdom and understanding,
As water floods or runs dry so that seeds cannot grow and bear fruit,
As the land can no longer flourish,
As the temperature of our world rises,
As ice melts and sea levels rise,
We pray you to touch the hearts of those of us who have forsaken your creation
For our own gain and false prosperity and for the complicity of all,
That we may hear and respond to the groaning of the Earth's adversity.
God of all creation, Guide us in your love and grace.

Lord of all power and light,
We pray you to enlighten those of us with power and wealth
That we do not turn away in indifference but rather Come to use and share that power and wealth for the Common good, for the care of the poor,
And for the care of all creation.
God of all creation, Guide us in your love and grace.

Lord of all peoples, languages, and cultures,
We thank you for giving us diversity in both nature and in humanity.
We, at St. Barnabas remember the native peoples on whose homeland
We now worship.
We pray for forgiveness for any complicity in ill treatment of native peoples
And seek to be united in ways that promote the well-being of all.
God of all creation, Guide us in your love and grace.

Lord of healing and mercy,
We give thanks for your love and all that you give to us.
We pray you now to care especially for people who suffer either
From consequences of war, strife, famine, and ill health or for Any other reasons. We continue to pray for those in our own community: Marilyn, Jim,
Shirley Holgate, Chantelle, Sharon and Kevin Hassler, Sammy Perri, Kaylee Perri, Richard R., Doug, Harvey Miller, Cindy and family, Mary and Stan Sharpe, Genevieve Kong, Leslie Burluson, Rene Garza, Estella Hernandez Campos, Georgianna, Dave Habr, Herm, Peter Zajac, and Florence H.

And we pray for those who have died. Especially BJ Brigadier, Carl Hassler, David Allan Hamilton, Ricky Carlton, Lucio Marson, and Stacey.
God of all creation, Guide us in your love and grace.

(The Intercessor then reads the petitions from the bidding book and from the comment section of FB Live.)
God of all creation, Guide us in your love and grace.

*If you are in person then you may write pray
requests into the Bidding Book on the shelf at the back of the worship space.*

Words and names in bold are said together.

While we do have individual Confession it is more common for us to make a communal Confession like this one from our Book of Common Prayer. What have you left undone?

The Deacon adds a concluding Collect.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Deacon or Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Minister and People say

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

All stand.

Celebrant The peace of Christ be always with you.
People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The people sit.

Birthday Prayer

Gracious God, who made us in your own image, we thank you for life, love, and joy. Send your blessing upon these your children, who have completed another year. Surround them with your grace, fill them with your love, and strengthen them to be your servants in the world. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anniversary Prayer

We thank you, Gracious God, for the love you have implanted in the hearts of your servants and for your continued blessings upon them. Give them kind and loving hearts, always ready to ask forgiveness as well as to forgive. Support them through times of trial, strengthen their love for one another, and may that love empower them to be instruments of God's love in the world. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After the Confession and Absolution we share The Peace with one another as a preparatory step for the Eucharist.

If are joining us on Facebook Live and you have a birthday, anniversary or other celebration please type that into the comments.

Prayer for Travelers

O God, our heavenly Father, whose glory fills the whole creation, and whose presence we find wherever we go: Preserve those who travel; surround them with your loving care; protect them from every danger; and bring them in safety to their journey's end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Celebrant says

Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Thou my everlasting Portion sung by the Choral Scholars

Thou my everlasting Portion, more than friend or life to me,
All along my pilgrim journey, Savior, let me walk with Thee.
Close to Thee, close to Thee, close to Thee, close to Thee,
All along my pilgrim journey, Savior, let me walk with Thee.

Not for ease or worldly pleasure, nor for fame my prayer shall be;
Gladly will I toil and suffer, only let me walk with Thee.
Close to Thee, close to Thee, close to Thee, close to Thee,
Gladly will I toil and suffer, only let me walk with Thee.

Lead me through the vale of shadows, bear me over life's fitful sea;
Then the gate of life eternal may I enter, Lord, with Thee.
Close to Thee, close to Thee, close to Thee, close to Thee,
Then the gate of life eternal may I enter, Lord, with Thee.

*At our 10am Eucharist, please switch to the supplemental seasonal bulletin.
If you are attending in-person worship, then this supplement is yellow.*

In the last three months in the season after Pentecost we are using Eucharistic Prayer C from our Episcopal Book of Common Prayer. Note the emphasis on God's Creation.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The People remain standing.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Celebrant and People

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

This anthem is known as the Sanctus. It is said or sung in almost every version of the Eucharistic Prayer. The word "sanctus" is Latin for "holy." God is holy and worthy of respect, awe, reverence, and devotion.

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

The Celebrant continues

Lord God of our Fathers and Mothers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God of Sarah, Rebecca, Leah, and Rachel. God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. Amen.

The Deacon says

As now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Celebrant says The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The original version of this Eucharistic Prayer only listed the Patriarchs (men) from some of the early Old Testament stories. We know that God also honored the women of these stories, so we add them. You may note there are three men and four women. Remember that Leah and Rachel both had Jacob as a husband.

Celebrant and People say together

Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The people stand and the Priest blesses the people, saying

Deep Peace of the quiet earth to you.

Deep Peace of the still air to you.

Deep Peace of the forgiving heart to you. And, the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

This version of our Post Communion Prayer is from a supplemental Episcopal resource called "Enriching Our Worship 1." This version connects the Eucharist we have just experienced with the Dismissal at the end of worship as we "sent forth to proclaim God's love to the world."

The blessing by the Priest is a reminder of the many blessings we already have from God. We are aware of some of the blessings and unaware of others. Our response to these blessings is gratitude and joy.

The words of this hymn are from a Traditional American Negro Spiritual.

Dr. Everett McCorvey, founder of the American Spiritual Ensemble and a researcher in this area, comments: "The term 'American Negro Spirituals' speaks to the history, the suffering, the hope and the resolve of a people who were able to sing through their suffering and tell and re-tell their heroic stories of triumph and survival through these songs. It is a story and a history that hopefully will never be forgotten.

And while the songs were born out of this very dark period in our American History, these songs are now sung, celebrated, and revered all around the world."

Part of the function of the Deacon, in The Episcopal Church, is to connect our congregation to the wider community. Thus, deacons are often chaplains in the community. With this function in mind the Deacon announces "the Dismissal" and send us back out into the community to be the hands and feet and voice of Jesus in the world.

CONCLUDING HYMN

He is King of Kings

♩ Refrain

He is King of kings, He is Lord of Lords;

Je - sus Christ, the first and last— no man works like Him. He is no man works like Him. 1. He built his throne up in the air—

2. I was but young when I be - gun—no man works like Him; 1. And called the saints from

2. But now my race is

1. ev - 'er where— no man works like Him. He is
2. al - most won—

D.S.

Deacon Let us go forth into the world rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit!
Alleluia! Alleluia!

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia! Alleluia!

LIFE AT ST. BARNABAS

EXPLORING THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER – The 1979 Book of Common Prayer (BCP) is the official liturgical resource for The Episcopal Church. It contains the primary worship and prayer services used by most Episcopal congregations. It is really what binds our denomination together, and many find its contents to be meaningful in spiritual development. We will be offering a two week series on Thursday, October 26th and Thursday, November 2nd from 7:00 pm to 8:00 pm in the Library. Join us to learn more about this incredible resource.

CHANCEL CHOIR IS BACK – Chancel Choir rehearsals have resumed after summer break on Wednesdays, from 6:30 to 7:30 pm in the sanctuary. Sunday morning warmup rehearsals will be at 9:15 am. NEW SINGERS ARE WELCOME. Please contact our Music Director, Janis Johnson if you are interested in singing with us.

NEW BIBLE STUDY TOPIC – Our Tuesday morning Bible Study group began this last week and continues at 10:00 am, right after 9:30 am Morning Prayer. We begin at the beginning, Genesis, the first book of the Bible. We are using a book from Forward Movement, a primary Episcopal Church publisher of Christian resources for prayer, spirituality, and other related practices. For each of Genesis' 50 chapters, the text is printed and followed by a reflection, questions, and a prayer. The publisher invites us to "Come and explore the advent of humanity and the interplay of God and Humans with this daily guide..." The reflections are written by a variety of authors, clergy, scholars, and lay people.

We meet in the library and on Zoom, so you may join at 10:00 for Bible Study only or at 9:30 for Morning Prayer. If you would like to join us, please let us know. We only have two books left, so we may need to order more. You want to be equipped to join in the discussion. Feel free to contact Gerti Garner at ggrgarner@gmail.com.

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT – Take a look at the Weekly-E to find a report on this month's ministry. Each month we will be focusing on one of the many ministries of St. Barnabas' Episcopal Church. This month our focus is on the Adult Bible Study. Mary Ann Hjalmarson is the ministry leader.

PHOTOS FOR ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY – Bring in framed photos of your deceased loved ones to place on the side altar. Once again this year we will observe All Saints/All Souls Sunday with a display of photos of your loved ones who have died. Photos will be displayed on Sunday, November 5th and Sunday, November 12th, and then you may take your photos home with you. You may bring in your photos earlier if you wish.

IT'S TIME FOR ANOTHER SENIOR POTLUCK LUNCHEON! – St. Barnabas' Seniors, we hope to see you on Thursday, October 19th, at 12:00 p.m. for our next Senior Potluck! A time set aside for fellowship and community, to share a meal, catch up with friends, and maybe make some new ones. A main dish and beverages will be provided. Please bring one of your favorite salads, desserts, or side dishes to share. If that's not possible for you, please join us anyway. A sign-up sheet will be posted in the Parish Hall. Please sign up by Oct 15th. Looking forward to being together again! Coordinated by your Stewardship Committee.

OPPORTUNITIES TO GATHER VIRTUALLY

Sunday morning WORSHIP at 10:00 am – We live-stream our Sunday 10:00am worship services on the St. Barnabas' Facebook page: facebook.com/StBarnabasAG/

All you need is a computer or device with an internet connection and speakers to watch the live-stream; you do not need to have a Facebook account. A recording of the live-stream will be posted on the St. Barnabas YouTube Channel: (bit.ly/StBYouTube) following the service.

If you would like to participate more fully in the service, the order of service booklet is available for download on the St. Barnabas website by clicking the big blue "Weekly Bulletin" button on our website. Sunday morning worship bulletin is available starting at 1:00 pm on Thursday.

TUESDAY MORNING PRAYER at 9:30 am – Now Hybrid on Zoom and the church library in person. If you have a Book of Common Prayer at home that will be useful to have on hand.

Click this link to attend via your computer or device:

BIBLE STUDY Tuesdays at 10:00 am – Now Hybrid on Zoom and the church library in person. Bible Study will start at 10:00 am immediately following Morning Prayer. The Zoom login is the same as Morning Prayer (above). We are looking at the book of Genesis and for each of the 50 chapters, the text is printed and followed by a reflection, questions, and a prayer. The publisher invites us to "Come and explore the advent of humanity and the interplay of God and Humans with this daily guide..." The reflections are written by a variety of authors, clergy, scholars, and lay people. Feel free to contact Gerti Garner at ggrgarner@gmail.com for more information.

Friday 4:00 pm CENTERING PRAYER – Each Friday afternoon at 4pm we will hold a Centering Prayer Service. After first gathering for a few minutes, we practice our 20 minutes of silent Centering Prayer. Following the practice, we will be reading and discussing a passage from Catherine of Siena, a 14th century mystic who composed and dictated The Dialogue, a summary of her theology, her spirituality, and her pastoral concerns, becoming the first woman published in one of the Italian dialects. We are using Set Aside Every Fear, an edited collection of her prayers and reflections.

We meet every Friday from 4 – 5pm. We meet in person on Friday, November 10th (and every 2nd Friday) at St Barnabas. All other Fridays we meet via Zoom: bit.ly/stbarnabascenteringprayer.

To dial in call 1-669-900-6833. When prompted put in the meeting id of 867 7756 1670# and when prompted for a password put in 034979#, and then hit # a second time.

MAKING DONATIONS TO ST. BARNABAS

Electronic transfer: You can make an electronic transfer to St. Barnabas using Quick Pay with Zelle set up. Many banks and financial institutions offer this method of funds transfer. Donations can be set up as one-time or recurring. To transfer money, use the email address of the Financial Secretary (stbarnabas.financial@gmail.com) as the recipient. If you have questions or difficulties setting it up, call Janette Sofranko at 805-801-4526. There are no fees associated with this type of transfer.

PayPal is another option for electronic transfer. You can find St. Barnabas using the email address of the Financial Secretary. stbarnabas.financial@gmail.com PayPal does charge St. Barnabas a processing fee.

Auto pay from your financial institution: Many banks and financial institutions offer a service often called Auto Pay or Bill Pay. It's fairly easy to set up on line or at the bank. The donation can be set up as one time or recurring. The bank will issue the check on the date you give them and mail the check to St. Barnabas.

Mail your check: You can also mail your check to St. Barnabas. Please put "Attn Financial Secretary" on the envelope. The address is: 301 Trinity Ave., Arroyo Grande, CA 93420

If you have any questions on how to make your donation, please feel free to contact Janette Sofranko, Financial Secretary, at 805-801-4526. You can also send an email to stbarnabas.financial@gmail.com. Thank-you for your continued support of St. Barnabas.
