

St. Barnabas' Episcopal Church

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER | APRIL 19TH, 2026

8:00 am & 10:00 am

*Jesus appears at Emmaus
by Jesus Mafa*

God's discerning, inclusive, Christ-centered church, engaged in outreach ministry, growing discipleship, and life changing worship.

Welcome to Worship at St. Barnabas'!

All are welcome to receive communion. If you are not baptized the Spirit may be calling you to communion and baptism. Baptism is our YES to the love God enfolds us in and our pledge to live that love. We'll accompany you on a journey towards baptism (which is actually the first part of the communion service). In the meantime you are always welcome at God's table. We are glad you are here.

Distribution of bread and wine:

- The musicians are served first so they can lead us in our Communion Hymns.
- Then, starting front of the main floor and then the balcony, Ushers will invite you forward to receive the bread and wine.
- You may either stand or kneel at the rail to receive the bread. You may also cross your arms for a blessing instead of receiving the bread.
- You may then drink from the common cup (chalice), and return to your seat. Some of those who don't drink from the common cup, make the sign of the cross with the bread over the cup.

Four courtyard and two narthex bathrooms are available for your use. If you have any questions or concerns, the Ushers are available to assist you.

Welcome to Online St. Barnabas!

Welcome to those joining our virtual worship with Facebook Live. We are glad to have you with us in this new way. You may access our livestream starting at 9:45 am at facebook.com/StBarnabasAG/

A recording of the live-stream will be posted on the St. Barnabas YouTube Channel (bit.ly/StBYouTube) the afternoon following the service.

Bidding (intercessory prayer) Book – If you would like to add a prayer to be read during the church service, you may add it to the “Bidding Book” located at the back of the church to the left of the doors. If you cannot join us in person and would like to add a prayer to be read during the church service you can email the name of the person to our parish office at saintbarnabas.ag@gmail.com (before Wednesday morning), or add it to the comments section on Facebook Live during the livestream.

Flower and Candle Dedications – Candles are lit by Laura McMaster in loving memory of her son, Spencer McMaster DePaola, on what would be his 32nd birthday, and David Murray in memory of his mother, Judy Murray.

Flowers have been placed on the altar by Laura McMaster in loving memory of her son, Spencer McMaster DePaola, on what would be his 32nd birthday, John Totten in loving memory of his wife, Patricia Mephram Totten, and Lynne Schulz in memory of her father, Randall Ross.

In addition to our Sunday morning Eucharist at 8:00 am and 10:00 am, we offer the following...

 Christ has arisen,
 Alleluia.
 Rejoice and praise
 Him, Alleluia.
 For our Redeemer
 burst from the tomb,
 Even from death
 dispelling its gloom.
 Let us sing praise to
 Him with endless joy.

The people standing, the Celebrant says
Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is Risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

This prayer is called the Collect for Purity, and it is reminiscent of Psalm 51. As its name implies, this is the state in which we hope to approach God in worship. The prayer dates back to the 11th century, which means it would have originally been in Latin. In this season, as a sign of welcome, the Celebrant says this prayer in Spanish.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Dios omnipotente, para quien todos los corazones están manifiestos, todos los deseos conocidos y ningún secreto encubierto: Purifica los pensamientos de nuestros corazones con la inspiración de tu Santo Espíritu, para que perfectamente te amemos y dignamente celebremos tu Santo Nombre; por Cristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

Translation:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name through Christ our Lord. Amen.

OPENING ANTHEM

Pascha Nostrum

Cantor

Al - le - lu - ia.

All sing †

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us;
 therefore let us keep the feast,
 Not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and e-vil
 But with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Alle-lu-ia.

Christ being raised from the dead will never die again;
 Death no longer has dominion over him.
 The death that he died, he died to sin, once for all;
 But the life he lives, he lives to God.

† So also consider yourselves dead to sin,
 And alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord. Alle-lu-ia.

Christ has been raised from the dead,
 The first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
 For since by a man came death,
 By a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.

† For as in Adam all die,
 So also in Christ shall all be made alive. Alle-lu-ia.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LESSONS

The people sit.

FIRST READING: Acts 2:14a, 36-41

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, “Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?” Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.” And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.” So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Each Sunday, our worship includes a reading from (a) the Old Testament, (b) the Psalms, (c) the New Testament, and (d) the Gospels.

Our readings are on a pre-set three-year cycle called “The Revised Common Lectionary” or RCL. We are currently in Year A of that three-year cycle.

We respond to the reading of Scripture by thanking God for the gift it is to us.

PSALM 116:1-3, 10-17

Cantor introduces Refrain
All repeat

This is a psalm of thanksgiving for healing. When we recognize our blessings from God then we are grateful to God and we have joy.

¹ I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, * because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him. Refrain

² The cords of death entangled me; the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow.

³ Then I called upon the Name of the Lord: *
“O Lord, I pray you, save my life.” Refrain

¹⁰ How shall I repay the Lord * for all the good things he has done for me?

¹¹ I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon the name of the Lord. Refrain

¹² I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people.

¹³ Precious in the sight of the Lord * is the death of his servants. Refrain

¹⁴ O Lord, I am your servant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.

¹⁵ I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and call upon the name of the Lord. Refrain

¹⁶ I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people,

¹⁷ In the courts of the Lord’s house, *
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem. Hallelujah! Refrain

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 1:17-23

A Reading from the First letter of Peter.

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

It is traditional for the people to stand as the Gospel Book is lifted high by the Deacon.

As the Gospel is announced, some people use their thumb to make the sign of the cross on their forehead, mouth, and heart. These three locations indicate that the Gospel reading is to enter the mind, voice, and heart. Some people also bow as a sign of reverence for Jesus who is depicted in the Gospels.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now on that same day two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Rob Keim

Followed by a moment of silent meditation.

THE NICENE CREED

All stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Deacon Let us pray for the church and for the world.

Father, we pray for your holy catholic Church;
That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

It is customary for us to say the Nicene Creed any time we have a Eucharist. The Creed is structured in the three-fold way of the Trinity – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

You may write prayer requests into the Bidding Book on the shelf at the back of the worship space.

Words and names in bold are said together.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest;
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others. In our own community we pray for: Elaine, Marta, Ursula, Fred, Lyn, Melissa & Gary Slavin, Carl, Tomelene, Marsha B, Connie Murdle, Leo & Tiffney, Candy, Weston, Margaret, Joseph & Marcia Goetz, Carolyn Reagan, Tom Arnold, Pamela, Paula, Joe, and Dennis Adams.

And, we pray for repose of soul for Dr. Bernard Lafayette Jr.

*(The Intercessor then reads the petitions from the bidding.)
And after a moment of silence, the Deacon adds a concluding Collect.*

A LITANY FOR PEACE

O God of peace, whose will it is that all Your children live in harmony, hear our prayer for peace among the people and nations of the Middle East.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for Palestine, we pray for Israel, we pray for Iran, we pray for these United States. Empower us through our prayers to be instruments of peace and reconciliation, that Your light of justice may burn brightly even in the middle of conflict and war.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for the leaders of the nations, that they may actively seek the welfare of all people, putting aside the hatred and violence resulting from past conflicts and past wrongs.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for all whose lives and livelihood are imperiled by continued violence that they may be spared the agony and terror of war.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for all who are caught in the path of warfare and are powerless to defend themselves; we pray they find shelter in Your love.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for all who are deployed in the service of peace, that You will keep them safe and allow them to work toward achieving a just and lasting peace.

Lord, hear us.

Our prayer is an incomplete list of those nations and peoples that have seen violence. Some of those other countries include: the United Arab Emirates (UAE), Saudia Arabia, Iraq, Bahrain, Kuwait, Oman, Jordan, and Lebanon. Ships and vessels from other countries have also been attacked.

We pray for aid workers and medical professionals who serve the casualties of war, that they may minister with grace and compassion, finding their comfort and strength in You.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for the wounded, for all who grieve the loss of loved ones, and for those who will lose contact with family members through the fog of war, that they may receive strength and consolation through You.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for those who have died through violence.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for all the earth, that it may not be destroyed by incessant bombing and fire.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for ourselves as we watch and wait and pray, that You will show us your mercies and strengthen our trust in You.

Lord, hear us.

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of Your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to You for help; for You are gracious, O lover of souls, and to You we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

THE PEACE

All stand.

Celebrant In union with one and all, may the peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The people sit.

If you have a birthday or anniversary you are celebrating you invite you to come up front for the blessings. If you have a family member or friend with a birthday or anniversary you may stay seated in your pew as you let us know about the life event.

Birthday Prayer

Gracious God, who made us in your own image, we thank you for life, love, and joy. Send your blessing upon these your children, who have completed another year. Surround them with your grace, fill them with your love, and strengthen them to be your servants in the world. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anniversary Prayer

We thank you, Gracious God, for the love you have implanted in the hearts of your servants and for your continued blessings upon them. Give them kind and loving hearts, always ready to ask forgiveness as well as to forgive. Support them through times of trial, strengthen their love for one another, and may that love empower them to be instruments of God's love in the world. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Travelers

O God, our heavenly Father, whose glory fills the whole creation, and whose presence we find wherever we go: Preserve those who travel; surround them with your loving care; protect them from every danger; and bring them in safety to their journey's end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Celebrant says

Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

I Know That My Redeemer Lives Sung by the Choral Scholars

I know that my Redeemer lives! What comfort this sweet sentence gives!
He lives, He lives, who once was dead; He lives, my everliving head!

He lives triumphant from the grave; He lives eternally to save;
He lives exalted, throned above; He lives to rule his Church in love.

He lives, my kind, wise, heavenly friend; He lives and loves me to the end;
He lives, and while He lives, I'll sing: He lives, my Prophet, Priest, and King!

He lives, all glory to His name! He lives my Savior, still the same;
What joy this blest assurance gives: I know that my Redeemer lives!

WORDS: SAMUEL MEDLEY, 1738-99

MUSIC: BRIAN L. HANSON

The Celebrant continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

At 8:00 am the Sanctus is said by the Celebrant and People

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

At 10:00 am the Sanctus is sung by the Celebrant and People

Ho - ly ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God of pow'r and might. Heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed, bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

This anthem is known as the Sanctus. It is said or sung in almost every version of the Eucharistic Prayer. The word "sanctus" is Latin for "holy." God is holy and worthy of respect, awe, reverence, and devotion.

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory.

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Barnabas and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Deacon says

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

*This point of the Eucharistic Prayer is known as the Epiclesus. It is the invocation or calling down from on high by which the Priest invokes the Holy Spirit on the Eucharistic bread and wine.
+ "Sanctify us also..." At these words some make the sign of the cross as symbol of our sanctification and blessing by the food drink, and by extension the acts of Jesus.*

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Celebrant and People sing together

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.
 Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;

 with all thy saints on earth and saints at rest.
 be known to us in break - ing of the Bread.

Drinking from the common cup (Chalice) is a long-standing tradition in the Episcopal Church.

The "common" cup signifies many things including the connection we have to all of the others who are drinking from the same cup. By extension we are connected to all others across the world who are also drinking from a common cup. Christ is in all people and the common cup helps us remember this truth.

You are welcomed to join the choir in singing the Communion Hymns. Or, you may elect to listen.

After Communion, the Celebrant says
Let us pray.

Celebrant and People say together
Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son,
and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The blessing by the Priest is a reminder of the many blessings we already have from God. We are aware of some of the blessings and unaware of others. Our response to these blessings is gratitude and joy.

The people stand and the Priest blesses the people, saying
The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

LIFE AT ST. BARNABAS

OPEN SEWING – Join other quilters and crafters as we spend the day sewing together. Open to all! Bring your sewing supplies, sewing machine, table light, and cutting board. Refrigerator and microwave available – bring your lunch. We meet for open sewing at St. Barnabas' Tuesdays from 9 am to 2 pm on the following dates:

- April 21, 2026
- April 28, 2026

For more information contact Melissa Biel at (562) 400-4704 or melissabiel@yahoo.com.

SEMINAR SERIES ON NON-VIOLENCE – The Diocesan Social Justice Committee invites you to join them Thursday evenings at 6:30 PM on Zoom to watch and discuss videos by peacemaker and author John Dear. Sessions run April 23, 30, and May 7, 14, and 21. All are welcome! Please email ggrgarner@gmail.com for the zoom link. In 2021, Dear created seven videos sharing his passion and energy for peacemaking. The seven weeks of Eastertide are a natural time to engage with his vision and be inspired to follow Jesus in the way of peace. An internationally known voice for peace and nonviolence, Dear is a priest, peacemaker, organizer, lecturer, and retreat leader, and the author or editor of 30 books, including his autobiography A Persistent Peace. In 2008, he was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize by Archbishop Desmond Tutu, and again in 2015 by Sen. Barbara Mikulski.

6 + 2 DINNER GROUPS – Join a Dinner Group. St. Barnabas folks enjoy eating together so we are putting together 6 + 2 Dinner Groups. We will have six adults in each group with slots for two new people to be added at the last minutes. Fill out a Dinner Group Survey and we will add you to a Dinner Group.

NEWCOMERS' BRUNCH – Each year we like to welcome those who are new to our St. Barnabas community. All newcomers are welcomed to join us for a luncheon on Sunday, April 26th at 11:30 am where you can meet other newcomers and learn about our parish from Fr. Rob and other leaders.

SPRING RENEWAL 2026 – May 1- 2 at All Saint Day School in Carmel

- Spring Renewal is the new annual gathering for the Diocese of El Camino Real
- Spring Renewal is for worship, thanksgiving and celebration
- Spring Renewal is for shared learning and growth
- Spring Renewal is for everyone in the Diocese

This year, we welcome Canon David Link, liturgical musician and teacher, as he leads us in exploring the role of music in worship and the life of the Church. The weekend includes a Friday evening Awards Banquet and a full day of program and table conversations on Saturday.

Visit the diocesan website <https://www.realepiscopal.org> to register for Spring Renewal.

NEW BIBLE STUDY TOPIC – We are finishing up our study of the Revelation of John and on Tuesday, May 12th we will shift our study to the Gospel of John. This Gospel was written after the other three Gospels and has a theology of Christ that is more developed than the earlier Books. Join us each Tuesday morning at 10:00 am as we study Scripture. We meet on Zoom and login information is on the next page of the bulletin.

OPPORTUNITIES TO GATHER VIRTUALLY

Sunday morning WORSHIP at 10:00 am – We live-stream our Sunday 10:00 am worship services on the St. Barnabas' Facebook page: facebook.com/StBarnabasAG/

All you need is a computer or device with an internet connection and speakers to watch the live stream; you do not need to have a Facebook account. A recording of the live stream will be posted on the St. Barnabas YouTube Channel: (bit.ly/StBYouTube) following the service.

If you would like to participate more fully in the service, the order of service booklet is available for download on the St. Barnabas website by clicking the big blue "Weekly Bulletin" button on our website. Sunday morning worship bulletin is available starting at 1:00 pm on Thursday.

TUESDAY MORNING PRAYER at 9:30 am – Now Hybrid on Zoom and the church library in person. If you have a Book of Common Prayer at home that will be useful to have on hand. Click this link to attend via your computer or device: bit.ly/stbarnabasmorningprayer

To dial in call 1-669-900-6833. When prompted put in the Meeting ID of 878 6513 4138# and when prompted for a password put in 365072#, and then hit # a second time.

BIBLE STUDY Tuesdays at 10:00 am – Now Hybrid on Zoom and the church library in person. Bible Study will start at 10:00 am immediately following Morning Prayer. The Zoom login is the same as Morning Prayer (above). We are studying the Revelation of John from the New Testament. Feel free to contact Gerti Garner at ggrgarner@gmail.com for more information.

Friday 4:00 pm CENTERING PRAYER – Every Friday afternoon at 4 pm we hold a Centering Prayer group. After gathering, we practice 20 minutes of silent Centering Prayer. Following the practice, we read and discuss a passage from Mother Teresa's "Love Without Measure." The reading will be sent out in advance of the meeting.

We meet on Fridays from 4:00 pm to 5:00 pm over Zoom (<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/86777561670?pwd=OEV0ajx1WXhuSGJINTIwbu1LUWR6Zz09>).

We meet in person on the second Friday of the month at St. Barnabas. We meet next in person on Friday, May 8th.

MAKING DONATIONS TO ST. BARNABAS

ELECTRONIC TRANSFER: You can make an electronic transfer to St. Barnabas using Quick Pay with Zelle set up. Many banks and financial institutions offer this method of funds transfer. Donations can be set up as one-time or recurring. To transfer money, use the email address of the Financial Secretary (stbarnabas.financial@gmail.com) as the recipient. If you have questions or difficulties setting it up, call Cassidy Rowland at 805-536-1598. There are no fees associated with this type of transfer.

PayPal is another option for electronic transfer. You can find St. Barnabas using the email address of the Financial Secretary: stbarnabas.financial@gmail.com PayPal does charge St. Barnabas a processing fee.

AUTO PAY FROM YOUR FINANCIAL INSTITUTION: Many banks and financial institutions offer a service often called Auto Pay or Bill Pay. It's fairly easy to set up online or at the bank. The donation can be set up as one-time or recurring. The bank will issue the check on the date you give them and mail the check to St. Barnabas.

MAIL YOUR CHECK: You can also mail your check to St. Barnabas. Please put "Attn Financial Secretary" on the envelope. The address is: 301 Trinity Ave., Arroyo Grande, CA 93420

If you have any questions on how to make your donation, please feel free to contact Cassidy Rowland, Financial Secretary, at 805-536-1598. You can also send an email to stbarnabas.financial@gmail.com. Thank you for your continued support of St. Barnabas.
